

The Legal Rights of Transgender and Sexually Fluid Students - What Every School Leader Should Know

The rights of transgender and sexually fluid students continue to raise questions for school district officials. This workshop is a combination of presentation, discussion, hypotheticals, and group participation. It contains updated information and resources. Topics include legal definitions; current status of state and federal law; use of pronouns, student records, restrooms and locker rooms; and participation in interscholastic sports, field trips and overnights.
