

Cornell University School of Industrial and Labor Relations: Managing Organization Conflict Certificate Series – REVISED DATES

The Managing Organizational Conflict certificate series is designed to provide individuals with the skills, processes, and knowledge to handle a variety of conflict and negotiation situations. The program consists of three 2-day courses. Cornell follows a mixed lecture/interactive approach where participants practice learned skills in group activities and simulations. In addition, to the greatest extent possible, Cornell will use the parties' actual issues to teach and practice learned skills.

Participants who attend two years (6 courses) of this Cornell ILR Program will be eligible for the certificate. Remaining courses will be offered in 2018 –2019.
