

New York State Certification for Lead Evaluators of Principals

This program will fulfill the required APPR requirements for lead evaluators of principals. Materials and resources will be provided regarding principal observation visits and the use of student learning objectives as required by 3012-d regulations. The requirements of 3012-d will be provided in the online material. Additional reading materials will be provided to support collaborative evaluations of commitment, support and accountability beyond compliance. The online meeting is intended to share learning from colleagues regarding problems of practice or best practices in implementing the APPR evaluation system.

This training will be a hybrid model with an in-person session.
