

Avoiding Cybertraps

Putnam | Northern Westchester BOCES has partnered with FREDERICK S. LANE Author, Attorney, Speaker, and Expert on the Impact of Emerging Technologies on Society, with an Emphasis on Personal and Workplace Privacy and Cybertraps.

FREDERICK S. LANE LECTURER AND EDUCATIONAL CONSULTANT

For the past twenty years, Frederick S. Lane has organized and presented seminars and lectures on a wide range of topics relating to his professional work and research. As a writer, lecturer, and computer forensics expert, Frederick S. Lane helps educators understand the new challenges and offers specific, thoughtful suggestions on how to avoid various cybertraps.

His entertaining, dynamic, and informative lectures are suitable for a variety of audiences, and can be adapted to the specific needs of your schools. He can address cyberbullying, digital misconduct, boundary violations, sexting, harassment, liability and litigation using any of the following:

- Keynote Addresses
- Breakout Session or Moderated Panels
- Professional Development for Educators or Administrators
- Policy and Procedure Workshop for Administrators and School Boards
- Presentation to Students (K-12); and/or
- Community Information Night

Mr. Lane has written nine books, including "Cybertraps for Educators" which offers teachers and school administrators a frank and sobering look at the various legal risks they face from the use and misuse of electronic devices and social media. Covering a wide range of contemporary topics – cyberloafing, cyberbaiting, loss of privacy, harassment, sexting, etc. – this book explores the myriad challenges that technology poses for today's teachers.
