

Links to Grant Funding Opportunities

www.target.com/education

Target supports programs that encourage a love of reading and helps students explore learning outside of the classroom. Determine if your classroom or organization qualifies, and obtain application information.

<http://www.usagrantsapplications.com/>

USA Grant Applications (UGA) was designed to give you the help you need to quickly locate and apply for funds. This site will advise how to apply and whether you qualify.

www.teachingthehudsonvalley.org

THV's new Explore Awards are smaller than traditional curriculum development grants because they are intended mainly to help cover transportation and site admissions. However, there are many more awards and, for the first time, after-school and summer programs as well as public and private schools are eligible to apply.

http://www.education-world.com/a_admin/grants/additional_grants.shtml

Education World contributor Don Peek shares current education grants.

www.fundsnetsservices.com/educ01.htm

Education and school grants information is provided free of charge.

http://www.neafoundation.org/programs/StudentAchievement_Guidelines.htm

The NEA Foundation provides grants to improve the academic achievement of students in U.S. public schools and public higher education institutions in any subject area(s).

<http://www.assembly.state.ny.us/gan>

New York State Assembly Grant Action News. The Assembly Internet Information provides free, timely legislative updates by email.

<http://www.nyhumanities.org>

The New York Humanities Council's mission is to strengthen the traditions of cultural literacy, critical inquiry, and civic engagement.