

NYS Certification for Lead Evaluators of Principals

This program fulfills the APPR requirements for lead evaluators of principals. Materials and resources are provided regarding principal observation visits and the use of student learning objectives as required by 3012-d regulations. The requirements of 3012-d are provided in the online material. Additional reading materials are provided to support collaborative evaluations of commitment and support and accountability beyond compliance. The two half-day sessions are intended to share learning experiences regarding problems of practice and best practices in implementing the APPR evaluation system.
