NOVELNY 2019-2020 Offerings (Provided at No Cost)

NOVELNY
Statewide Access to Electronic Information
From the New York State Library

What is NOVELNY?

Provided by the New York State Library, NOVELNY is an online virtual library connecting New Yorkers to 21st century information via libraries and library systems statewide. NOVELNY is an electronic resource access project that enables libraries across New York State to give their communities online access to the full text of thousands of journals, newspapers and other references. Currently, NOVELNY provides online access to the following database products:

BRITANNICA DIGITAL LEARNING

Britannica Academic – The rich combination of the venerable Encyclopedia Britannica plus Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, magazines and periodicals, and many other research tools provides the variety of reliable sources that students need to consult when conducting thorough collegiate research—all from one resource. Articles provide high-quality, comprehensive, trusted information with balanced, global perspectives and insights that users will not find anywhere else.

Britannica Escolar – Discover the leading knowledge-building resource that is universally trusted for accurate and age-appropriate content in Spanish. New features make it more valuable than ever for native Spanish speakers, bilingual students, and students learning Spanish.

Britannica School – A source for all grades (Pre-K-12) and all reading abilities. Offers thousands of up-to-date, curated, and curriculum-relevant articles, images, videos, audio clips, primary sources, maps, research tools, recommended websites, and three separate databases—Elementary, Middle, or High.

GALE, A CENGAGE COMPANY

Academic OneFile with InfoTrac Collections – A source for peer-reviewed, full-text articles (numbering in the millions) from the world’s leading journals and reference sources. With extensive coverage of the physical sciences, technology, medicine, social sciences, the arts, theology, literature and other subjects, it is both authoritative and comprehensive. Includes full-text coverage of the New York Times back to 1985 and The Economist back to 1983.

Business Insights: Essentials – This comprehensive database brings together a wide variety of global business information including company profiles, industry-market research reports, investment/brokerage reports from Thomson Reuters, and financial reports, as well as business magazines and newspapers. It contains full text from over 8,100 periodical titles.

Computer Database – Provides access to business and technical publications in the computer, electronics, and telecommunications industries.

Educators Reference Complete – Resource for educators and education students. Provides access to periodicals covering pre-school to college and most educational specialties. Also contains federal and international reports and publications, including full-text for many titles cited in ERIC.

Expanded Academic ASAP – Resource for academic research includes scholarly journals and selected general interest titles in a wide variety of subjects. Ideal for smaller academic libraries and high schools.

General OneFile with InfoTrac Collections – A source for news and periodical articles on a wide range of topics: business, computers, current events, economics, education, environmental issues, health care, hobbies, humanities, law, literature and art, politics, science, social science, sports, technology, and many general interest topics. Millions of full-text articles, many with images.

General Reference Center Gold – General-interest sources include magazines, children’s magazines, newspapers, almanacs, encyclopedias, dictionaries, and reference books.

Health Reference Center Academic – Provides access to the full text of nursing and allied health journals, plus select consumer health information sources, and thousands of health-related multimedia.

Informe Académico – Spanish interface provides access to Spanish- and Portuguese-language scholarly journals both from and about Latin America.

InfoTrac Newsstand – Offers over 2,000 full-text newspapers that include several New York State newspapers.

Kids Infolinks – Contains over 550 age-appropriate magazines for grades K-5. Also includes Merriam-Webster’s Elementary Dictionary, maps, flags, seals, charts, graphs, and over 600 videos to support STEM topics.

Opposing Viewpoints in Context – Contains a range of perspectives on many important issues, with over 21,000 pro/con viewpoints. Includes a variety of resource types: reference, news, primary sources, multimedia and more.

Research in Context – Resource for students in grades 6 to 8. Offers magazines, newspapers, primary sources, over 12,000 videos and more on a variety of topics. Supports national and state curriculum standards in language arts, social studies and science.

NOVELNY is funded by federal Library Services and Technology Act Funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS).
Job Resources

The Job Seekers page novelanewyork.org/jobseekers.php provides links to various job resources.

What other resources are available?

The Current Events page at novelanewyork.org/event.php provides a link to selected newspaper resources.

Who is eligible to participate in NOVELny, and what benefits do they receive?

Participation is available to all not-for-profit member libraries of library systems in New York State, and Charter Schools to the extent permitted by negotiations and contractual limitations. Every $1 the State invests results in a minimum of $35 worth of access at the local level. NOVELny may be accessed from any eligible library in the state. Libraries may also choose to offer library users remote access to NOVELny from their homes, schools or workplaces 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Every New Yorker can search NOVELny from www.novelanewyork.org via geoIP authentication without entering a driver license number as long as they are in New York State.

How can my library register to use NOVELny databases?

To participate, libraries need to complete the online registration form. Online registration forms are located in the Librarians section of the NOVELny web site: www.novelanewyork.org. As of 2017 over 3,900 libraries and library systems registered to use NOVELny.

Is training offered for the databases available through NOVELny? If so, is there a fee?

The vendors offer online training resources and webinars. Librarians can also arrange training sessions directly through the vendors. There is no fee for training. Please see novelanewyork.org/training.php for more information.

What are the origins of NOVELny?

The Board of Regents, at their July 13, 2000, meeting, adopted the final report of the Regents Commission on Library Services, Meeting the Needs of all New Yorkers: Library Service in the New Century, as Regents policy. Recommendation one in this report is to “Create NOVEL, the New York Online Virtual Electronic Library, to deliver high-quality, reliable digital information to all New Yorkers.”

NOVELny is funded by federal Library Services and Technology Act Funds from the Institute of Museums and Library Services (IMLS).

How is NOVELny funded?

NOVELny is supported with temporary federal funds through a Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) grant to the New York State Library by the Federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS).

What other services are provided to NOVELny users?

The New York State Library hosts the NOVEL-DB e-mail list to post announcements concerning database issues, contract dates, database training sessions, and other information useful to NOVELny-registered libraries. See the web site www.novelanewyork.org or e-mail avrmnovel@nyserd.gov for further information.

A Help Desk, also provided by the New York State Library, is staffed Monday through Friday to respond to questions about the databases offered through NOVELny. Additional information may be found at the NOVELny Help Desk web page at novelanewyork.org/helpdesk.php.

A marketing toolkit is available at www.novelanewyork.org to help library staff and library supporters publicize, explain, and demonstrate the features of NOVELny. The kit includes materials for downloading and printing, and other helpful components that are appropriate for a variety of audiences.

NoveList

Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School, High School

With data on thousands of fiction titles, this readers' advisory service is a source of trusted reading recommendations, helping those of all ages discover great books to read. It includes comprehensive series information and read-alikes for titles, series and authors, as well as professional reviews, reader reviews, articles, lists, genre overviews, discussion guides and more. NoveList tags books with appeal factors, a unique way to characterize the specific reasons why readers enjoy books and a key to effective readers' advisory.

Additionally, NoveList features professional resources for librarians, such as educational materials about... readers’ advisory, books and genres. Librarians, teachers, parents, book discussion leaders and others will find materials helpful for their work with readers.

Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School, High School

NoveList Plus features all the functionality and content of NoveList, but with the added benefit of nonfiction and audiobook recommendations. Like NoveList, the content in NoveList Plus meets the needs of readers of all ages.

The nonfiction included in NoveList Plus is meant to appeal to readers reading for pleasure. Therefore, EBSCO does not include every kind of nonfiction — no textbooks or instructional books, for example. However, NoveList Plus does include biographies, narrative nonfiction and other kinds of creative nonfiction that readers of all ages enjoy. Nonfiction is important to students, parents and teachers, as many classroom assignments rely on nonfiction.

NoveList Plus is also an ideal solution for librarians, parents, and teachers looking for Common Core resources, because nonfiction is a key focus within those standards. Specifically, you can use NoveList Plus to:

- Get Common Core connections by grade/unit
- Find fiction and nonfiction books that meet Common Core standards
- Download quick lists of recommended books by topic
- Get help for teaching with books

NoveList K-8
Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School

NoveList K-8 helps young readers discover the right books for reading success, offering a comprehensive source of trusted reading recommendations for children’s fiction. With content chosen specifically for younger readers, NoveList K-8 includes series information and read-alikes for titles, series and authors, as well as professional reviews, reader reviews, articles, lists, discussion guides and more. NoveList K-8 tags books with appeal factors, a unique way to characterize the specific reasons why readers enjoy books and match the right book with the right reader.

Special features for students and teachers include reading lists by topic and grade level, curriculum connections, educational articles, Lexile reading levels and more.

NoveList K-8 also has professional resources for librarians such as educational materials about readers, books and genres. Librarians, teachers, parents, book discussion leaders and others will find materials helpful for their work with readers.

NoveList K-8 Plus
Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School

NoveList K-8 Plus includes the same types of content as NoveList K-8, but with the added benefit of nonfiction titles for younger readers, greatly increasing the amount of titles available in the database. Nonfiction is very popular with young readers and the nonfiction content available in NoveList K-8 Plus is meant to appeal to those looking to read for pleasure. The narrative nonfiction titles in NoveList K-8 Plus appeal to readers who want to read engaging true accounts. Because the new Common Core State Standards rely heavily on nonfiction reading, NoveList K-8 Plus is a useful resource for elementary and middle school librarians and teachers looking to find appropriate texts for their students. NoveList K-8 Plus allows librarians, teachers and parents to find Common Core connections by grade and unit.

Grade level(s): High School

This full-text database provides a historically rich collection of hundreds of thousands of classic and contemporary poems, as well as short stories, biographies and authoritative essays on such topics as poetic forms, movements and techniques. Available via its own user-friendly interface or EBSCOhost, Points of View Reference Center provides a balance of materials from all viewpoints, with main essays, leading political magazines from all sides of the political spectrum, newspapers, radio and TV news transcripts, primary source documents and reference books. The database also offers guides for writing position papers, developing arguments and debating.

Points of View Reference Center also includes access to EBSCO's Curriculum Standards Module, which helps educators correlate EBSCO content quickly and easily to Common Core- or state-specific curriculum standards. The module provides browsing of specific benchmarks, many of which have recommended search strings for successful content retrieval.

Additionally, Points of View Reference Center features alternative content delivery options to support Individual Education Programs, such as Text-to-Speech for HTML articles, as well as rich multimedia content, student research guides and citation help.

Primary Search https://www.ebsco.com/products/research-databases/primary-search Grade level(s): Elementary School

A database designed specifically for elementary school libraries, Primary Search contains full text for popular children’s magazines and a vast image collection. Students can learn about a variety of topics, such as endangered species, famous musicians, fitness, space exploration and more. Featuring content from Funk & Wagnall’s New World Encyclopedia and American Heritage Children’s Dictionary, 3rd Edition, Primary Search provides students with easy-to-read encyclopedic entries written specifically for kids.

All full-text articles, many available in color PDF, are assigned reading level indicators (Lexiles) that provide educators with an estimate of the result’s reading difficulty and the approximate grade-level reading ability required for comprehension. Lexiles help teachers meet the needs of students with varying reading abilities and interests, and allow students to read along at their own pace. In addition, this database provides access to a robust collection of more than one million relevant photos, maps and flags to aid kids in learning.

Core Collections https://www.ebsco.com/products/research-databases/core-collections Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School, High School
For all of your collection development and maintenance, general reference and readers’ advisory needs, these reliable guides help librarians build and maintain well-rounded collections of the most highly recommended reference, non-fiction and fiction books. With documented selection criteria, four levels of recommendation and an unparalleled level of credibility, the Core Collections products help librarians do their jobs better, faster and with more confidence.
With a solid history of excellence, Core Collections products have earned respect and recognition within the library market as the only collection development tools with clear recommendation levels and documented selection criteria, giving these collections an unparalleled level of credibility and authority as impartial and expert aids.
Recommendation Levels are assigned by the Core Collections editors — librarians with experience in collection development, cataloging, digital content management, metadata and readers’ advisory — and an advisory committee of exalted public, academic and school librarians who are experts in their fields. These comprehensive collection development tools for public, academic and K-12 libraries list thousands of books chosen for their merit, and are available both online and in print.
Online editions of Core Collections contain titles at all recommendation levels and allow advanced search and sorting capabilities as well as links to full-text reviews. “Similar Books” and “Other Books by This Author” suggestions link directly to related titles in the Core Collections product. Starred reviews, awards and industry best lists are also included when available. Core Collections databases also include Lexile® Measures to further assist librarians in selecting books that meet the needs and interests of all readers.
The print editions are abridgments of the databases and contain listings for titles in the top two recommendation levels — most highly recommended and core collection — plus metadata and evaluative excerpts for making collection development decisions. Copies are available from Grey House Publishing and new editions are published approximately every two years.
The products are broken down by the following subjects, and packages of multiple subjects are available:

Occupation Matcher

An individual wanting to explore occupations from within Job & Career Accelerator would ideally first complete the Occupation Matcher questionnaire, a set of targeted questions designed by O*Net to match an individual with a list of careers that fit their interests and experience. The results are graphed by level of interest in six categories: Realistic, Investigative, Artistic, Social, Enterprising and conventional. Each of these categories is explained with a “roll-over” feature. The higher the match, the better chance the individual would enjoy or perform well in associated occupations.

Job & Career Accelerator displays matched occupations for the individual’s primary (highest) and secondary (second-highest) areas of interest.

The information available on occupations comes from O*Net, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, State government data, Simplyhired.com, government sites such as http://www.grants.gov, http://www.fedmoney.org, and proprietary materials developed by leading educators and subject matter experts for LearningExpress, LLC. Information includes:

- Summary, Wages and Trends
- Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
- Tasks and Activities
- Tools and Technology
- Education and Training
- Related Occupations
- Web Resources: Eligible Training Providers by State
- Available Jobs

The Occupation Cards can be saved in the My Accelerator page along with corresponding job postings, downloaded to a storage device (computer, external hard drive or flash drive), or printed from a PDF file. Individuals can then build upon this information, create relevant resumes, letters, find positions and track their application process.

EBSCO Discovery Service  http://www.ebscohost.com/discovery  Grade level(s): Elementary, Middle School, High School
Today’s student researchers can be frustrated by so many interface choices and long database lists. Why can’t your library be like Google? EBSCO Discovery Service (EDS) provides a fast, streamlined, sophisticated approach to searching all of a library’s resources via a single search box—a search experience intuitive to students because it was developed to mirror the popular search engines that they are already accustomed to using. But it’s more than just a single search box. With the combination of superior relevance and value rankings and full-text searching across all of your databases, EDS provides students with complete and precise results at the top of the result list.
“The seeds for researching and training for informational literacy are planted in grade nine,” says Kate Lawrence, EBSCO’s Senior Director of User Research. “There appears to be a relationship between what students were calling research boot camp in grade nine and the confidence they feel in conducting research at a college level.” Read the entire article in School Library Journal here: Study Ties College Success to Students’ Exposure to a High School Librarian.
With EBSCO Discovery Service, your students will be better prepared and more successful researchers, and your library will achieve the maximum value in your database investment.
Flipster https://flipster.ebsco.com/files/titlelist/FlipsterTitleList.xls  Grade level(s): Elementary School, Middle School, High School
Continuing its tradition of working with libraries to help patrons quickly and conveniently find the content they want, EBSCO offers Flipster, a new way for library patrons to access digital editions of popular magazines, courtesy of their library. EBSCO currently offers more than 1,600 popular digital magazine titles with new titles being added monthly. Patrons can easily check out and download all titles and access them anytime, anywhere, on the most popular tablets and mobile devices. Flipster provides libraries with digital magazine subscriptions to popular magazines at a title-level basis. Titles are offered on an annual subscription. Usage models are predetermined by the publisher. Publishers can set the following limits per title: 50, 100, 500 or Unlimited simultaneous users. Main subjects include: academic, art and design, automotive, business, comics, consumer, entertainment, family and kids, fitness and health, food and cooking, history, hobbies, interest, DIY, home and garden, lifestyle, literary, men’s interest, news and politics, science and technology, sports, teens, travel and regional, women’s interest.

Benefits for Patrons
• Simple sign-on process requiring patrons to only log in once
• Patrons will never receive any spam, EBSCO never asks for personal email addresses
• User-friendly interface with many browsing options

Benefits for Libraries
• No platform fees, allowing the library to allocate more money towards content
• No hosting or access fees
• Wide growing selection of the most popular titles

Explora for Schools (Dedicated Student Researcher Interface) Databases available via Explora: https://help.ebsco.com/interfaces/Explora/FAQs/Which_databases_are_compatible_with_Explora
Based on extensive user research, EBSCO has released two newly-designed search interfaces geared specifically to school-aged users – Explora for Primary Schools and Explora for Secondary Schools. These next-generation platforms have been developed to meet the needs of students in grades K-5 and 6-12, respectively, and feature enhanced usability and accessibility for an improved research experience. To support the needs of students, teachers and librarians, these ADA- and COPPA-compliant interfaces include:
• Simple searching and quick delivery of relevant results, including articles, essays and primary source documents to help students feel successful in their research
• Easy-to-browse categories organized by popular topic, giving students research ideas
• Topic overviews that provide students with a starting point for research
• A colorful, mobile-friendly design with feature areas that provide context to students
• Reading level indicators (Lexile measures) to simplify discovery of grade-appropriate content
• Text-to-speech for HTML articles to assist struggling readers or those learning English
• Top videos from the Associated Press, the world’s leading news agency
• Educators’ landing page where teachers can more easily find relevant support materials

These user-friendly interfaces help young learners develop information literacy skills, supporting lifelong learning and correlating to Common Core objectives. Examples of the new interfaces can be found below:

System Requirements

Compatible Browsers
EBSCO’s products and services are web-based, hosted solutions that can be accessed... through any internet-connected device. Libraries are able to search EBSCO databases and e-books with any PC, Mac or networked workstation operating a web browser. The minimum browser requirements for EBSCOhost are as follows:

- Internet Explorer: 10.0 or later
- FireFox: Latest version plus one previous version
- Safari: Latest version plus one previous version
- Google Chrome: Latest version plus one previous version
- Other: JavaScript, Cookies enabled
- Recommended screen resolution: 1024 x 768

Additional Requirements for Databases

- In order to view the PDF images available on EBSCOhost, workstations must have the Adobe Acrobat Reader software installed. EBSCO provides a link on the EBSCO Help support site for users and administrators to download Adobe Reader.
- Cookies and JavaScript – EBSCOhost uses cookies to maintain state. Cookies can also be used as another means of authentication by a site if so desired. However, cookies are not required for searching EBSCOhost. Cookies can be allowed or disallowed through settings in the Internet Options portion of the library’s web browser. EBSCOhost also makes use of JavaScript for certain design and functionality elements.
- Additionally, Adobe Flash Player 10.0 or later is required to use Text-to-Speech on interfaces in which it is available. EBSCO also recommends the following software to run video clips that a library may choose to provide via EBSCO interfaces:
  - Windows: Windows 98 and 2000—use Windows Media Player 7.1 or higher
  - Macintosh: Mac OS X—use Windows Media Player 9 or higher for Mac OS X; Mac Classic OS—use Windows Media Player 7.1 or higher for Mac
- Additionally, to view AP Videos on the Explora interface, the most recent versions of Firefox, Google Chrome, Safari, or Internet Explorer 10.0 or later are required.

Additional Requirements for eBooks

The following no-cost plug-ins and software are necessary to run EBSCO eBooks:

- Reading Online: EBSCO eBooks can be viewed online by both Windows and Mac users, following the minimum EBSCOhost browser requirements. Please also note:
  - To be able to vertically scroll e-books, the following browsers are recommended: Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome or IE 10.0 or later.
  - To view an EPUB format e-book, the following browsers are recommended: Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome or Internet Explorer 10.0 or later.

- Downloading Offline to a Computer: If a user is downloading an e-book to a computer and would like to read it on a desktop, Adobe Digital Editions 1.7.1 or higher must be installed to access the e-book.
• Tablets or Mobile Device: To download e-books, devices must be supported by the Adobe eBooks Digital Rights Management Software. For some devices, a reader app must also be installed, such as the EBSCO eBooks mobile app for iOS and Android. For DRM-supported devices that do not use an app, downloaded e-books can also be transferred to the device from a desktop, using Adobe Digital Editions 1.7.1 or higher.

• Additional: JavaScript and Cookies must be enabled

Additional Requirements for Flipster
While the Flipster interface and mobile viewer should be accessible using most mobile operating systems, the following operating systems have been tested and confirmed to be supported by Flipster:

- iOS: Versions 9 and higher
- Android: Version 4.2.2 (Jelly Bean) and higher

Additionally, Flipster provides a free app for tablet devices mentioned above to manage the user’s downloaded magazines. The app is a no-cost application necessary for users to download the title offline. It is currently available for iOS, Android and Kindle Fire devices.

Academic OneFile

http://www.gale.cengage.com/tlist/aone.xls Academic OneFile is the premier source for peer-reviewed full-text articles from more than 14500 of the world’s leading journals and reference sources. With extensive coverage of the physical sciences, technology, medicine, social sciences, the arts, theology, literature, and other subjects, Academic OneFile is both authoritative and comprehensive. With millions of articles available in both PDF and HTML full-text with no restrictions, both undergraduate and graduate researchers are able to find accurate information quickly. The focus of Academic OneFile is to provide libraries with content that compliments their existing collections without duplicating them. The majority of the content in Academic OneFile is peer-reviewed content that is unique to Gale. Gale’s agreements with publishers like Sage and Mary Ann Liebert Inc. provide unrestricted access to content that typically is only available through direct subscriptions with the publisher. Gale is not interested in duplicating large collections and then imposing lengthy embargoes. Instead, we focus on developing long-term relationships with publishers that allow Gale to provide access without embargoes. Gale is also focused on providing full-text access to content that is cited or included in major bibliographic indices. The chart below illustrates Gale’s progress in securing content included in some of these indices. This list is not inclusive of all the indices that Gale focuses on. In addition to all of the traditional services available through InfoTrac, Gale is proud to announce a number of unique resources offered through collaboration with Thomson Scientific. Mutual subscribers of Academic OneFile and Thomson Scientific’s Web of Science® and Journal Citation Reports® are provided seamless access to cited references, digital object identifier (DOI) links, and additional article-level metadata. Users are also able to view the impact factor history for selected journals. Further Thomson Scientific customers will be able to pull the full-text of an article directly from their InfoTrac subscription. This close collaboration allows fully integrated and seamless access to the best in full-text academic content and the indexing around it. Academic OneFile can also be seamlessly accessed through Google Scholar. Through a special partnership with Google users are able to activate Academic OneFile links through Google Scholar’s advanced preferences. Academic OneFile also includes a linking arrangement with JSTOR for archival access to a number of... periodicals. This product like all other products on the PowerSearch platform maintains full OpenURL compliance for e-journal and subscription access. Academic OneFile features a fully updated intuitive interface -- providing multiple pathways to key information. Featuring the latest technology available on the groundbreaking PowerSearch® platform this essential resource is versatile and easy to use.

Examples of portal pages include the Federal Budget Deficit the Energy Crises Online Social Networks Childhood Obesity Bullying Freedom of Speech Coal Organic Food and Judicial Activism. Broader categories covered in OVIC include: Business and Economics; Energy and Environmentalism; Family Issues; Health and Medicine; Law and Politics; Science Technology and Ethics; Society and Culture; and War and Diplomacy.

Subscription Database Offerings: 2019-2020
OVIC also includes a category on the National Debate Topic providing quick and easy access to content on these frequently studied and discussed issues. Additionally multimedia is a key component of OVIC and video audio interactive maps and images are featured prominently on the topic pages and in search results. • Portal pages are edited by a large staff of experienced editors dedicated to ensuring the credibility relevancy and currency of OVIC. Editors collaborate with a large network of contributors who are considered subject-matter experts in their respective fields. • Portal pages cover the most-studied issues and are intended to provide students and educators with a starting point for research: The overview is hand-selected by editors and subject experts and is intended to provide users with a comprehensive yet accessible summary of the issue. Featured viewpoints are also hand-selected and are meant to be the best of the best. A special effort is made to provide current selections that cover differing viewpoints on the issue. • OVIC topic pages include the following content buckets or sections: viewpoints reference news magazines academic journals statistics primary sources websites images video and audio. The first results that appear in content buckets other than academic journals magazines and news are often hand-selected so that students and educators are able to quickly access some of the best and most authoritative content on a particular issue. • Portal pages also include related topics to create connections between subjects. For example the Gun Control topic page in OVIC references the following related pages: Activism Arms Trade Crime Guns and Violence Juvenile Offenders Media Violence Right to Bear Arms and School Violence. • More than 70 new portal pages have been added to OVIC since August 2010 including 6 new pages in August: Cancer Espionage and Intelligence Organic Food Sexting Socialism • On average between 6 and 8 new portal pages are added per month with the goal of having more 345 topic pages by June 2012. New portal topics focus primarily on U.S.-focused social issues from an American perspective. Other considerations include hot topics in the news and other current events top searches customer input and national standards across major subject areas. • More than 2000 videos have been added to OVIC since August 2010 including: Treating Eating Disorders Homosexuality and the Church The Increase in Unemployment The Slippery Slope of Texting And more! • More than 80 new interactive maps have been added since August 2010 including: American Housing Collapse Guns and Violence Online Education Texting while Driving And more! The Charleston Advisor is now publishing its twelfth year and for the tenth consecutive year the journal is sponsoring a series of awards for the best and worst electronic services and databases of interest to libraries. The awards are not necessarily limited to products covered by TCA but TCA reviews (if available) were consulted in the final consideration. These awards are published on an annual basis. Members of the editorial board made the final selections in a September 2010 conference call. Awards are given in a group of standard categories; special one-time kudos are periodically given and labeled below as a Special One Time award. Most Improved Product: Opposing Viewpoints in Context - Gale Cengage has come up not only with a new name for what was the Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center they have improved it as a learning tool. The editorial content is great for the undergraduate rhetoric paper but where the older version required much explanation - both of its value and method - Opposing Viewpoints in Context simplifies finding both textual and media information on important controversial topics.

JSTOR is a not-for-profit digital library of academic journals, books, and primary sources. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform.

A substantial portion of the academic journals on JSTOR are offered as a single package for secondary schools. All of the touchstone disciplines on the JSTOR platform are included—from literature and history to biology and mathematics. The package contains more than 2,500 leading journals as well as primary source collections containing pamphlets, manuscripts, letters, oral histories, government documents, images, 3-D models, spatial data, type specimens, drawings, paintings, and more. Archival issues start from the first issue of the journal published and extend up to a publication date usually set in the past three to five years. Secondary schools gain access to the same collections as colleges and four-year universities at a small fraction of the cost.

NBC Learn

For more than 80 years, NBC News has been documenting the people, places, and events that shape our world. NBC News Learn, the educational arm of NBC News, is dedicated to making these historic stories, images and primary source documents available on-demand to teachers, students, and parents. NBC News Learn has already digitized more than 12,000 stories from the NBC News archives — one of the largest news archives in the world, dating back to the 1920s. In addition, collections are updated with current events every day, Monday through Friday, with stories from such celebrated programs as NBC Nightly News, the TODAY show, Meet the Press, Dateline NBC, as well as the networks of MSNBC, CNBC, and Telemundo.

NBC News Learn is staffed by veteran NBC News producers, who have created scores of original stories and Town Hall events around the country, in partnership with the National Science Foundation, the Kellogg Foundation, and others. These include such award-winning collections as Chemistry Now, Changing Planet, Science of NFL Football, Science of the Winter Olympic Games, and Finishing the Dream.

Our original videos and archival news stories are correlated to state standards and the Common Core, and aligned to more than 25 K-12 and 30 Higher Ed collections. Videos are generally short — less than six minutes in length — enabling instructors to engage and enlighten their students without wasting precious class time. Yet these brief videos are full stories, with a beginning, middle and end, reported by some of the most famous journalists in broadcast history, including John Chancellor, Tom Brokaw, Tim Russert, Brian Williams, and many others.

To deliver these stories in a safe, collaborative online learning environment, NBC News Learn has developed the most advanced media player in existence. Called a Cue Card™, the player supports videos, photographs, newspaper articles, primary source documents, and other media. It is “flippable,” providing bibliographic information, clickable keywords and a citation generator on the back, a full transcript along the side, and additional tabs along the bottom that let users annotate each resource with their own research notes, and to save it to personal play lists. The Cue Card offers a closed captioning option and can easily be shared on the Internet or by email.

The collections of NBC News Learn are available through Internet streaming or for via download. They are also accessible as a stand-alone resource or as a Blackboard building block, which allows users to embed videos directly into Blackboard learning management systems.

Our Help Desk is staffed 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, and is unmatched in quality of customer service. Subscribers are offered free and unlimited training via Webinar. On-location training is also available.

For a school, a district, or a state, NBC News Learn has the tools, technology and innovative content to meet all your 21st century educational needs.

Oxford University Press

Oxford University Press currently publishes more than 6,000 titles a year worldwide, in a variety of formats. Our range includes dictionaries, English language teaching materials, children's books, journals, scholarly monographs, printed music, higher education textbooks, and schoolbooks.

Many of these titles are created specifically for local markets and are published by our regional publishing branches. We sell more than 110 million units each year, and most of those sales are outside the UK.

Our publications regularly win prizes and awards at national and international level.

We also look beyond traditional publishing to develop new ways of supporting our customers. Just a few examples include:

- offering support to teachers
- delivering digital learning and assessment platforms, such as Oxfordenglishtesting.com
- creating online research tools, such as Oxford Bibliographies Online, that enable students and researchers to find relevant content quickly and easily
- providing freely available digital language resources on www.oxforddictionaries.com

StarWalk Kids Media is the publisher of an award-winning collection of engaging, enhanced eBooks for children in grades PreK-8, including mentor texts from authors such as Seymour Simon, Johanna Hurwitz, Laura Vaccaro Seeger, Pat Mora, Bernard Waber and Jane Yolen. Schools and libraries purchase affordable, annual subscriptions to this premier collection of professionally narrated, high-quality fiction and nonfiction titles, which allow multiple-user access and work on any device.

The StarWalk Kids Media Digital Collection delivers highest quality children’s eBook titles from a wide variety of well-known and highly respected children's book authors and illustrators. These are not work-for-hire titles, but proven, successful, and unique eBooks from award-winning authors and illustrators. Each title has been carefully re-created to provide a true digital reading experience, with studio-quality narration and other features not normally available in typical eBooks. Children can choose from three reading modes: they can read for themselves without sound, read-along at their own pace accompanied by professional narration, or simply follow the narration throughout the book for an auto-play, read-to-me experience.

With over 521 titles in our current collection and many more being published this year the subject areas include Animals, Art, Biography, Character and Values, Classic Literature, Concepts, Fiction, History, How-To, Mathematics, Memoir, Music, Poetry, Science, Social Science, and Social Studies.

The proprietary StarWalk Reader™ delivers enhanced eBooks in an attractive display that enables either an individual user or an educator displaying the book on an interactive whiteboard to employ tools such as Synchronized word highlighting (individual word highlights synchronized to narration), Notes, (capturing key words, themes or other notes in a ‘sticky note’ that remains on the page until it is deleted by the user), Highlight, (highlighting key words or phrases, remains until deleted by the user), Zoom, and Search, (searching for any word in the eBook; click and user is taken to that page with the word highlighted). In addition, the user can click on the author and/or illustrator name on the top right to access biographical information and photographs, as well as a complete list of titles in the collection by that author.

Our platform has been designed to deliver unlimited 24/7 multiple simultaneous access to our collection of children’s eBooks. The proprietary, browser-based StarWalk Reader™ works on virtually any Internet-enabled device, including desktop and laptop computers, interactive whiteboards, and tablets. Users can read at school, in the library, on whiteboards, or at home; effectively anywhere where there is Internet access.

An extensive metadata collection process was employed in order to create robust search capability and support for educators, with books coded by Guided Reading, Lexile®, Accelerated Reader®, alphabetic level, subject, age, grade, keywords, genre, subject and Common Core State Standards.

For more information, visit www.StarWalkKids.com where you can sign up for a free full-access 14 day trial of the program and the entire collection of titles.

The forthcoming StarWalk Writer™ is a cloud-based platform that creates a single collaborative environment for reading, writing and research. Designed to work with our mentor texts, the StarWalk Writer supports educators with sample writing assignments, built-in rubrics and organizers, group and individual assessment tools, always-available training videos, and LMS compatibility. This revolutionary platform allows groups of students to:

- read complex texts (with narration support if needed)
- copy text and images with citations
- take and share notes in a digital “scratchpad”
- collaborate in person or at a distance
- synthesize the information into a finished, research-based report
- practice these skills for forthcoming, online, standardized tests

No more opening and closing programs, or juggling multiple windows! The StarWalk Writer™, developed with funding from National Science Foundation (NSF) Grant No.1415774, is a fully-integrated, collaborative software environment unlike anything else available. Available now for the September 2015 school term; recommended for grades 3 — 8.

Tales2Go

Tales2go is a subscription audio book service for K12 schools. Founded by committed entrepreneurs and former educators, the company believes that every student can achieve reading proficiency through repeated exposure to spoken sophisticated words. Many students lack such an exposure, which is the basis of vocabulary acquisition and retention. Word knowledge (i.e., vocabulary and fluency) is a key component of reading proficiency.

Tales2go provides instant, unlimited and simultaneous access to over 9,100 audio book titles to use on desktops, laptops and mobile devices in the classroom and beyond. In addition to its other resource capabilities, Tales2go is used as a literacy tool in a growing number of schools and districts across the U.S., including Los Angeles USD, Berkeley USD and Heartland AEA.

The Tales2go catalog includes name-brand titles from leading publishers and spans fiction and non-fiction, Pre-K through high school and includes Spanish language titles and music for younger children. Publishing partners include Scholastic, Recorded Books, Blackstone Audio, Weston Woods Studios and leading storytellers such as Bill Harley, Odds Bodkin, Regi Carpenter and Willy Claflin.

WALDO

The Westchester Academic Library Directors Organization offers consortial pricing for web accessible databases and services. FMI: http://www.waldolib.org/eresources.asp

WALDO Core Plus Package is comprised of seven online resources:

ABI/INFORM Complete -

By keeping up with the needs of business researchers worldwide we have grown ABI/INFORM into the world's most comprehensive and diverse business database available. The number of journals available in active full text has more than doubled in 3 years, but we have been adding a whole lot more than just journals based on feedback from business researchers into the types of content that is vital to their research.

ProQuest Research Library -

From business and political science to literature and psychology, ProQuest Research Library™ provides one-stop access to a wide range of popular academic subjects. The database includes more than 5,060 titles—over 3,600 in full text—from 1971 forward. It features a highly-respected, diversified mix of scholarly journals, trade publications, magazines, and newspapers. This combination of general reference volume and scope makes it one of the broadest, most inclusive general reference databases ProQuest has to offer.

ProQuest Health Management

ProQuest Health Management™ is designed to meet the needs of researchers studying the field of health administration. This high-demand healthcare management content provides the most reliable and relevant information on a wide range of topics, including:

- Hospitals
- Insurance
- Law
- Statistics
- Business management
- Personnel management
- Ethics
- Health economics
- Public health administration
Coverage for more than 840 key journals with over 4,500 Doctoral Dissertations and Theses, ProQuest Health Management provides users with the highest quality content, much of which is not available elsewhere.

National Newspapers Premier including Current Black Newspapers

ProQuest National Newspaper packages provide your library with online access to the most respected national and regional newspapers from across the U.S. The titles in ProQuest National Newspapers offer researchers thorough coverage of local, national, and international events with journalistic balance and perspective. ProQuest National Newspapers offers the most read and widely-respected papers in the U.S. including:

- The New York Times
- The Wall Street Journal
- Los Angeles Times
- Chicago Tribune
- Christian Science Monitor

ERIC: provides unlimited access to more than 1.2 million bibliographic records of journal articles and other education-related materials, with hundreds of new records added twice weekly. If available, links to full text are included.

ERIC indexes education journals, the majority of which are peer-reviewed. Most of these journals are indexed comprehensively - that is, a record for every article in each issue is included in ERIC. Some journals are indexed selectively - that is, only those articles that are education-related are selected for indexing.

In addition to the journal literature, ERIC indexes education-related materials from scholarly organizations, professional associations, research centers, policy organizations, university presses, the U.S. Department of Education and other federal agencies, and state and local agencies. Individual contributors submit conference papers, research papers, dissertations, and theses.

Ovid MEDLINE: Updated daily, MEDLINE on OvidSP offers you seamless and up–to–the–minute access to the latest bibliographic citations and author abstracts from more than 5,500 biomedicine and life sciences journals in nearly 40 languages (60 languages for older journals). English abstracts are included in more than 80% of the records.
PsycINFO: The essential psychology tool for researchers, practitioners, and students in numerous disciplines, PsycINFO is an abstract database that provides systematic coverage of the psychological literature from the 1800s to the present.

PsychARTICLES (not included in the WALDO Core Plus Package): PsychARTICLES is a robust database offering complete access to the full text of more than 90 landmark journals in behavioral science and related fields ranging from education, to nursing, to business, to neuroscience. PsychARTICLES features:

- Full-text journal articles – current issue back to volume 1, issue 1 for most titles, creating over a century of psychology coverage with articles from as early as 1894
- All APA published journals plus those from the Canadian Psychological Association and English-language journals from Hogrefe Publishing Group
- Complete coverage of all subject areas relevant to psychological science including basic/experimental psychology, clinical psychology, developmental psychology, education and school psychology, health psychology, industrial/organizational psychology, social psychology and social processes
- Entire catalog of peer-reviewed journals with a long history of fine scholarship and rigorous research. Participate in the CrossRef CrossCheck program to guard against plagiarism.
